

Burnaby South Secondary School and The BC Provincial School for the Deaf | February 26, 2025

Rebels Newsletter

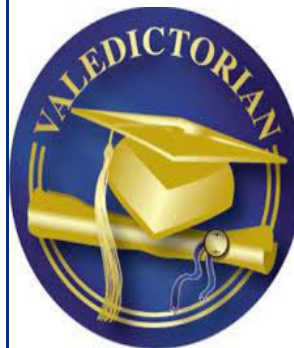

Pink Shirt Day is on Wednesday, February 26th. Student Government leadership students is reaching out and asking for your support in helping raise awareness about the importance of this day in promoting inclusivity, respect and kindness within our school community.

Pink Shirt Day is not just about wearing a pink shirt; it's about standing up against bullying in all its forms, including homophobia and transphobia.

Burnaby South Feminism Club is having a fundraiser to raise money to gift goats, chickens, plant seeds and more to women around the world! Donations will be made through Women for Women International, an organization that strives to empower and support women. Donate on School Cash Online <https://burnaby.schoolcashonline.com/>, or in person at lunchtimes near the Cafeteria. Please help us reach our goal of $500. The fundraiser will be running all of March.
